303 Squadron

Cast: Piotr Adamczyk, Maciej Zakościelny, Cara Theobald, Andrew Woodall, Antoni Krolkowski
Genre: Historical
Director: Denis Delic
Status: Completed

Synopsis: The 303 Squadron of the Royal Air Force becomes the most efficient fighter unit amongst the allied forces during WWII. Made up of Poles evacuated via Romania and France to the United Kingdom the 303 Squadron joins the Battle of Britain in the 11th hour to help the British to fight a common enemy.

The film is a story based on true events inspired by a worldwide bestseller by Arkady Fiedler, and is a long-awaited story that needs to be told. This story of bravery, friendship, and brotherhood is still alive, especially in Poland, U.K., and the U.S. We take off where Dunkirk left off, and present a story of a handful of extremely brave Polish Pilots with extraordinary combat flying skills fighting for a common goal. For our freedom and yours.

Denmark

Cast: Rafe Spall, Simone Lykke, Thomas Gabrielsson, Benedikte Hansen, Joel Fry, Steve Speirs
Genre: Comedy
Director: Adrian Shergold
Status: Completed

Synopsis: Herb's life is a mess. He's lost his welfare, can't hold a job, can't talk to his son, has a neighbour who won't shut up and a diet that consists mainly of cheap beer and mushy peas. It's no way to live and he knows it.

Then he learns from a TV news report that Danish prisoners have it way better than he does: a job, accessible healthcare, the quiet of the countryside, even an HDTV. They're practically living in hotels.

He says goodbye (and good riddance) to his dingy flat and smuggles himself to Denmark aboard a cargo ship, landing in a quaint town with everything he needs -- including a bank to rob. But when he meets a friendly local barmaid and a lovable stray dog that won't leave his side, he begins to wonder if prison really is his only chance of a fulfilling life.

Synopsis:	California '77: playground of the rich and famous, sun-soaked, sex-crazed and powered by shitloads of Colombian snow. Leading the parade: maverick auto-designer John DeLorean (Lee Pace), high-risk gambler and corporate vampire. Blinded by ambition, even if that means selling his soul, DeLorean will stop at nothing to design the ultimate car of the future, a sports car with wings. On the outside looking in: DeLorean's neighbour Jim Hoffman (Jason Sudekis), barely supporting his family while living high-end on the pay of a low-end bullshit artist. Enticed into DeLorean's inner circle, Jim soon discovers the playboy entrepreneur's life is on the brink of collapse. When busted by the feds with a planeload of drugs, Jim's turned snitch by Special Agent Benedict Tisa (Timothy Olyphant). His ultimatum: deliver the head of John DeLorean. The true-life sting operation and lurid celebrity scandal, Driven is a turbo-charged tale of ambition, entrapment and betrayal.

Synopsis: Deep space. Beyond our solar system. Monte and his infant daughter Willow live together aboard a spacecraft, in complete isolation. A solitary man, whose strict self-discipline is a protection against desire – his own and that of others - Monte fathered the girl against his will. His sperm was used to inseminate Boyse, the young woman who gave birth to her. They were members of a crew of prisoners: space convicts, death row inmates. Guinea pigs sent on a mission to the black hole closest to Earth. Now only Monte and Willow remain. And Monte is changed. Through his daughter, for the first time, he experiences the birth of an all-powerful love. Willow grows, becoming a young girl, then a young woman. Together, alone, father and daughter approach their destination – the black hole in which all time and space cease to exist.

Hurricane

Cast: Iwan Rheon, Milo Gibson, Stephanie Martini, Kristof Hadek, Marcin Dorocinski
Genre: Action/Adventure
Director: David Blair
Status: Completed

Synopsis: The story of the Polish fliers who found themselves fighting for the freedom of their own country in foreign skies. Seen through the eyes of Jan Zumbach, fighter ace and adventurer, it tells how the Poles, driven across Europe by the German war machine, finally made their last stand.

Flying Hurricanes for the RAF over Britain, they became a key component in the legend of 'The Few'. Up against the might of the Luftwaffe they hoped that, by saving Great Britain from Nazi invasion, they were keeping the dream of a free Poland alive. In the lethal melee above England in that summer of 1940, they fought with a tenacity and skill that earned them the admiration of the whole British nation. The dogfights against superior planes cost some of the men their lives.

The constant strain of gladiatorial combat took away the sanity of others. But, as Zumbach discovers as the war stutters to a close, becoming the best in the RAF is a hollow victory for the Poles. Hurricane shows how, even in a man's finest hour, cynical political manoeuvres can destroy his hopes, strip away his dignity and lead him to a very dark place indeed.

I Love My Mum

Cast: Kierston Wareing, Tommy French
Genre: Comedy
Director: Alberto Sciamma
Status: Completed

Synopsis: Following a car crash Ron and Olga are bizarrely transported from their comfy world into an uncertain one -- from the safety of their living-room in England, into an alien world in North Africa and across Europe. Without money or documents and still in their pyjamas, they will need to put aside their mutual animosity and find a way back.

Olga and her son Ron, both living in the portside town of Tilbury, manage to accidentally exile themselves from their own country over an argument about cheese. As if being stranded in Morocco without documents or money wasn't enough, they have to find a way to immigrate back home.

With a relationship that is strained at the best of times, mother and son have to survive each other as well as a journey across the Mediterranean and European continent. As their absurd adventure unfolds, the two come face-to-face with their own insecurities.

While the manipulative but uninhibited mother hides her vulnerabilities behind her crass and carefree manners, her juvenile son struggles between wanting his own independence and needing his mother's support.

Synopsis:	Winter 1968 and showbiz legend Judy Garland arrives in Swinging London to perform in a sellout run at The Talk of the Town. It is 30 years since she shot to global stardom in THE WIZARD OF OZ, but if her voice has weakened, its dramatic intensity has only grown. As she prepares for the show, battles with management, charms musicians, and reminisces with friends and adoring fans, her wit and warmth shine through. Even her dreams of romance seem undimmed as she embarks on a courtship with Mickey Deans, her soon-to-be fifth husband. And yet Judy is fragile. After working for 45 of her 47 years, she is exhausted; haunted by memories of a childhood lost to Hollywood; gripped by a desire to be back home with her kids. Will she have the strength to go on? Featuring some of her best-known songs, including the timeless classic 'Over the Rainbow', JUDY celebrates the voice, the capacity for love and the sheer pizzazz of "the world's greatest entertainer".

Margaret's father is so taken by Bert's prowess as a goal-keeper that he gets him out of the camp to play for his team. While Margaret's and Bert's love slowly blossoms despite local hostility, Bert's heroics in goal are noticed by Man City. Rather than going back to Germany, Bert marries Margaret and signs for Man City. His signing causes outrage to thousands of fans, many of them Jewish. But Bert and Margaret receive support from an unexpected direction: Rabbi Alexander Altmann, who fled the Nazis. Thus Bert's path to acceptance begins. At the 1956 FA Cup Final he achieves ultimate reconciliation, when he secures victory by playing on despite breaking his neck. Yet fate twists the knife for both Margaret and Bert and their loyalty to each other will be put to the test once more.

The Last Right

Cast: Michiel Huisman, Niamh Algar, Samuel Bottomley, Colm Meaney
Genre: Comedy
Director: Aoife Crehan
Status: Production

Synopsis: New York-based Daniel Murphy wakes on a flight home to Ireland for his Mum's funeral to find elderly passenger Pdraig Murphy has died in the next seat. To his surprise the lonely Pdraig had just listed him as his next-of-kin. In a bid to persuade his autistic brother Louis to return to New York with him, Daniel agrees to drive Pdraig's remains all across Ireland, from Cork to Rathlin Island, to be buried with his brother. Hitching a ride in the passenger seat is the funeral home temp Mary on a desperate mission to correct a drunken mistake. Meanwhile, the police realise Daniel has no business driving off with Pdraig's body, and Daniel, Mary and Louis find themselves the focus of a nationwide manhunt. As they cross the country and the border, sparks ignite between Mary and Daniel. But when a long-buried family secret endangers the fragile truce between the brothers, Mary finds herself caught in the crossfire.

With its uniquely Irish sense of humour, this is a heart-warming and bittersweet comedy in the vein of LITTLE MISS SUNSHINE.

Synopsis: Five hundred years after his death, Leonardo continues to be one of the most admired and well-known figures in human history. An artist, architect, humanist, naturalist and military strategist, Leonardo Da Vinci was, above all else, a tireless observer constantly searching for new discoveries.

Through the use of Artificial Intelligence and decades-long studies and research, the film exclusively recomposes the thousands of pages of the Da Vinci Codes and revisits with new and insightful perspectives the theories and practical implications of his work. With contributions by leading international experts and a pool of technician and engineers, the film sheds new light on Da Vinci's observations and studies, giving viewers the opportunity to see the works of Leonardo through the modern implications of his works. The civil and armaments industries, engineering, communications, medicine, anatomy and 21st-century art all share a common denominator: the research and development found in the work of Leonardo.

Synopsis: "My wife had faith, I had doubt - you'd be surprised how well those two work together!" That's been Joe Bigler's "life operating manual" until his wife died in a mysterious bicycle accident. Now without her faith to help him mourn, and his doubt driving toward a mystery surrounding her death, Joe is left with more questions than he can handle, and quickly finds himself spiraling into a dark abyss - uncertain of all things. His rescue comes in the form of a Dog who wanders into his rose garden and refuses to leave. "Dog," as Joe unaffectionately refers to him, never utters a single bark, but engages Joe in silent conversation, and together they form an unexpected bond. And with that bond comes a new understanding of love, mercy, and compassion along with the beginnings of a personalized faith that helps Joe not only begin to grieve and heal, but also discover the answers to the unsolved mystery surrounding his wife's accident...and ultimately an ability to forgive at the highest level.

Synopsis: In the late 1980s, amateur British sailor Tracy Edwards decided she'd had enough of being dismissed and belittled as the only woman in seafaring crews she'd participated in. Setting her sights on the upcoming Whitbread Round the World Race—a staggering 40,000-nautical-mile circumnavigation of the earth that few boats dared tackle—Tracy assembled the world's first international all-female sailing crew and entered the competition. As they weathered not only life-threatening high seas but also a storm of sexism in the media, this inspiring group of women had to rely on their own pure resilience—and each other—to prove the naysayers and skeptics wrong. What they hadn't quite expected, however, was how their expedition would come to signify so much more than just a race to the finish line.

Mr. Jones

Cast: James Norton, Vanessa Kirby, Peter Sarsgaard
Genre: Drama
Director: Agnieszka Holland
Status: Completed

Synopsis: 1933. Gareth Jones (James Norton) is an ambitious young Welsh journalist who gained fame after his report on being the first foreign journalist to fly with Hitler. Whilst working as an advisor to Lloyd George, he is now looking for his next big story. The Soviet "utopia" is all over the news, and Jones is intrigued as to how Stalin is financing the rapid modernisation of the Soviet Union. On leaving his government role, Jones decides to travel to Moscow in an attempt to get an interview with Stalin himself. There he meets Ada Brooks (Vanessa Kirby), a British journalist working in Moscow, who reveals that the truth behind the regime is being violently repressed. Hearing murmurs of government-induced famine, a secret carefully guarded by the Soviet censors, Jones manages to elude the authorities and travels clandestinely to Ukraine, where he witnesses the atrocities of man-made starvation – millions left to starve – as all grain is sold abroad to finance the industrialising Soviet empire. Deported back to London, Jones publishes an article revealing the horrors he witnessed. But the starvation is denied by Western journalists reporting from Moscow, all under pressure from the Kremlin, including Pulitzer Prize winning journalist Walter Duranty (Peter Sarsgaard). As death threats mount, Jones has to fight for the truth. Meeting a young author by the name of George Orwell, Jones shares his findings... helping inspire the great allegorical novel Animal Farm.

My Friend The Polish Girl

Cast: Emma Friedman-Cohen, Aneta Piotrowska
Genre: Drama
Director: Ewa Banaszekiewicz
Status: Completed

Synopsis: "The Power and Control Over Intimacy" From Cannes and Telluride nominee Ewa Banaszekiewicz and Mateusz Dymek comes a fiction film that takes the form of a first-time filmmaker's documentary.

MY FRIEND THE POLISH GIRL borrows from cinema verite and video bloggers to create a rare naturalism in style and performance. The fiction film watches as an experimental documentary told through the eyes (and lens) of amateur filmmaker Katie: an American rich kid following Alicja, an erratic unemployed Polish actress. Set in a post-Brexit-vote London, Katie's colonising, disruptive presence in Alicja's life mirrors the treatment of migrants in the UK: Welcomed, used, then discarded. A raw, sexual, and visually brash film exploring the abusive power and control over someone's intimacy.

Our Godfather

Genre: Documentary
Director: Andrew Meier
Status: Completed

Synopsis: Our Godfather is a feature length documentary about Tommaso Buscetta, the first high-ranking Italian Mafia boss ever to turn against Cosa Nostra.

Buscetta not only broke the code of silence for the first time - he testified against the Mob, both in the USA and in Italy. "He was the key witness who broke the back of the Mob", Louis Freeh (later FBI director) said at the time.

Buscetta helped convict more than 400 Mafiosi. He became the Mob's most wanted man in the world - and 11 close relatives, including two sons, were killed.

Our Godfather tells, for the first time, the Buscetta story with exclusive access to his family, who remain in America and are now breaking their silence after more than 30 years in hiding in America.

Synopsis: "I was a shadow in a man's world. Invisible...but in the end, powerful."

In a picturesque village in England, Joan Stanley (Academy Award® winner Dame Judi Dench), lives in contented retirement. Then suddenly her tranquil existence is shattered as she's shockingly arrested by MI5. For Joan has been hiding an incredible past; she is one of the most influential spies in living history... Cambridge University in the 1930s, and the young Joan (Sophie Cookson), a demure physics student, falls intensely in love with a seductively attractive Russian saboteur, Leo. Through him, she begins to see that the world is on a knife-edge and perhaps must be saved from itself in the race to military supremacy. Post-war and now working at a top secret nuclear research facility, Joan is confronted with the impossible: Would you betray your country and your loved ones, if it meant saving them? What price would you pay for peace? Inspired by an extraordinary true story, Red Joan is the taut and emotional discovery of one woman's sacrifice in the face of incredible circumstances. A woman to whom we perhaps all owe our freedom.

Synopsis: What is the future of education in a networked world? Indian professor Sugata Mitra calls for a revolution in how and what we learn. With a global network of information a few clicks away, Mitra argues that the Victorian model on which our school systems are based is obsolete.

School In The Cloud follows a three year experiment as Mitra installs unmanned internet kiosks in locations ranging from remote villages in West Bengal to a school in north east England, to enable children to self-organise their learning.

Jerry Rothwell's film explores the impact of Sugata's work, predominantly through the experience of children in the remote Indian village of Korakati in the Ganges Delta. As children encounter the internet for the first time, will they be able to use it to transform their futures?

Synopsis: A love-story set in the timeless and enchanting world of Summerland; sun-dappled days spent outdoors by the sea over one achingly beautiful summer. Fiercely independent writer Alice (Gemma Arterton) secludes herself in her study: occupied by her work but also profoundly lonely, haunted by a love affair from her past. When spirited young Frank, an evacuee from the London Blitz, is dumped into her irritable care, his innocence and wonder awaken Alice's deeply buried emotions. Bravely embracing life's miraculous unpredictability, Alice learns that wounds may be healed, hope and second chances do exist, and any woman must defiantly be two things: who and what she wants. From Britain's strongest new voice, the Olivier Award winning breakthrough writer/director Jessica Swale, Summerland inspires our audience with daringly honest and contemporary themes – an intensely emotional journey of womanhood and self-discovery, love and friendship.

Sylvia Plath: Inside The Bell Jar

Genre: Documentary
Director: Teresa Griffiths
Status: Completed

Synopsis: Bringing to life that 'queer sultry summer' of 1953, SYLVIA PLATH: INSIDE THE BELL JAR is the first film to unravel the story behind her seminal novel. Sylvia Plath's The Bell Jar exploded the myth that women were content. It shone a light on 1950s gender politics, sexual identity and mental health at a time when women struggled to find a voice. This BBC arts film has unprecedented access to people who knew Sylvia Plath, many of whom are talking publicly for the first time. It also features a rare interview with Plath's daughter Frieda Hughes.

Tehran City Of Love

Cast: Forough Ghajabegli, Mehdi Saki, Amir Hessam bakhtiar, Behnaz Jafari
Genre: Drama
Director: Ali Jaberansari
Status: Completed

Synopsis: Three lonely people, each looking for love in their own ways. This is hard enough in any big city – never mind in Tehran, where individual freedoms can't be taken for granted. In a sexy voice on the telephone, an overweight receptionist seduces men who wouldn't look twice at her real 'me'. In revenge, her sexy alter ego stands up every single one of the dates she makes. A former bodybuilding champion now earns a living as a personal trainer. When he gets a promising young sportsman as a client, he drops everything else; even a very promising acting job for a well-known French director. A singer at religious funerals is dumped by his fiancée. He tries to find new purpose in life by retraining as a singer at weddings and parties. That's a lot more attractive to women, his friend assures him.

 Synopsis: The Romans are at war with the Picts. Hadrian's Wall is the last outpost of the Roman frontier and a small group of male and female soldiers have left the safety of it to travel North, into Pict territory, searching for four missing men. As winter threatens and no sign of the men, the group prepare to turn home, when they encounter a beast that is hunting them. With their lives in danger the Romans must either face the beast or turn and run. But can the hunted become the hunters, or will snow and fatigue plague their journey home?
 The leader of the Romans admits to knowing there was a sickness that plagued the Pict lands and that the missing men, may well be the very beasts hunting them. Grackus (BAFTA winner Stuart Brennan) has been injured from their first encounter with the beasts and is starting to behave strangely. If it is the sickness, their journey home has just got a lot more difficult...
 "Wolf" is a fast paced action thriller, where no man or woman can be trusted and the beast that hunts them, will not stop until it is dead. Or you are.

Synopsis: Charlie is a Zoo-Head, addicted to a powerful hallucinogenic with memory crunching side-effects. However, he's forced by the authorities to enter a radically experimental rehabilitation treatment which is supposed to recover his memories and put his mind back together as it was prior to his addiction. However, the system crashes and Charlie becomes trapped in a series of horrifying 'memory loops'. Haunted by childhood traumas, Charlie's psyche repeatedly shuts down in defence, only to reboot with increasingly disturbing recurrences. In desperation at his suffering, his girlfriend reveals the true depth of her feelings for him which causes Charlie to realise he does have something precious to live for. But, it may be too late, the twists and turns of his visions intensify, potentially destroying his mind for good. That is unless the desperate efforts to save him can succeed.
