Synopsis: 7 Sins is divided into seven segments, each one unique in its voice, acting, story, and style. While the seven deadly sins are cemented in Catholic Theology and are always the same, the interpretation by any single person is always different, and this assemblage is no exception. This film uses the themes within its subtext and introduces, and then wildly perverts, the punishments associated with the 7 Deadly Sins. The overall atmosphere is one of uneasiness that, in addition to a fair amount of disturbing visuals, is amplified by its pulse-pounding soundtrack.

Synopsis: Set in Venice in the late 19th century, it tells of an American editor determined to get his hands on the letters his icon, the Romantic poet Jeffrey Aspern, wrote to his beautiful lover and muse, Juliana Bordereau. Juliana lives in a Venetian palazzo with her niece Miss Tina, who she seems to control and Morton tries to manipulate. But when the ambitious adventurer trifles with Miss Tina's affections she learns to see through his scheme.
 The Aspern Papers tells a story of obsession, grandeur lost and dreams of Byronic adventures. The film was shot where Henry James actually wrote it - on original locations in Venice. From script stage on, French director Julien Landais was supported by Executive Producer and recent Academy Award winner James Ivory.

Synopsis: Behind the picture postcard veneer of a Cornish fishing village trouble brews, two brothers, cove fishermen, at war with each other over how to make a living from the small family fishing boat. And sitting right in the middle is a complication; a son/nephew, a member of the next generation, a personification of compromise. When a tit for tat with incomers escalates and a prank goes horribly wrong the brothers are forced to unite and face the future together. Capturing life in a marginal community Bait explores family breakdowns, love and grief. Bait was shot in late Autumn 2017 on 16mm film using a 1970's Bolex camera and processed using Mark's distinct hand processing method giving a unique depth and beauty to the image.

Synopsis: 1936, England. Linus, his wife Marianne, and their daughter Adelaide move into town, where Linus has been posted as the new reverend. He's been tasked by the Church to renew the villagers' faith, which has been lost after the disturbing, unexplained deaths of the previous reverend's family – at the very same mysterious manor where Linus and his family have settled into. Soon after their arrival, strange events start to occur: ghostly voices, dark figures dressed as monks, mysterious totems, and Adelaide's behaviour becoming stranger by the day. It soon becomes clear that a malicious entity seeks to possess Adelaide and that the Church is hiding a terrible secret...
 As the menacing spirit grows stronger, Linus and Marianne have to confront their beliefs and enlist the help of Harry Reed, a famous Occultist. Together, they must uncover the terrifying truth about their house and the paranormal force which inhabits it... and hope it isn't already too late for Adelaide.

Beats

Cast: Martin Donaghy, Laura Fraser, Rachel Jackson
 Genre: Drama
 Director: Brian Welsh
 Status: Completed

Synopsis: 1994, a small town in central Scotland. Best mates Johnno and Spanner share a deep bond. Now on the cusp of adulthood, life is destined to take them in different directions – Johnno's family are moving him to a new town and a better life, leaving Spanner behind to face a precarious future. But this Summer is going to be different for them, and for the country. The explosion of the free party scene and the largest counter-cultural youth movement in recent history is happening across the UK.

In pursuit of adventure and escape, the boys head out on one last night together to an illegal rave. Stealing cash from Spanner's older brother, under the hazy stewardship of pirate radio DJ D-Man, the boys' journey into an underworld of anarchy, freedom and a full on collision with the forces of law and order. A universal coming of age story, set to a soundtrack as eclectic and electrifying as the scene it gave birth to, BEATS is a story for our time – of friendship, rebellion and the irresistible power of gathered youth.

The Canterville Ghost

Cast: Stephen Fry, Hugh Laurie, Freddie Highmore, Imelda Staunton, Miranda Hart, Toby Jones
Genre: Animation
Director: Kim Burdon
Status: Pre-Production

Synopsis: For 300 years, Sir Simon Canterville has been haunting his ancestral home, Canterville Chase, and loving it! But everything changes when an American family buys the estate and moves in. The family is unimpressed with Sir Simon's ghostly antics and does not find him scary at all... they actually find him to be a bit of a nuisance. It is not long before the family's young twin boys are scaring him out of his wits, chasing him through the corridors of Canterville, exhausting and weakening his spirit. Sir Simon becomes discouraged and crestfallen from the boys' pranks, but becomes hopeful when accompanied by the family's teenage daughter to embark on the journey to find what caused his 300 year-old curse. Sir Simon travels with Virginia through his past and into a magical garden where he comes face-to-face with his nemesis, the Grim Reaper, who challenges him to Sir Simon in a duel to release him from the curse. But if Sir Simon loses, he and Virginia will be trapped in the garden for all eternity. The Canterville Ghost is a warm-hearted adaptation of the literary classic tale, a love-story and a comedy with a spooky edge, a "very animated Oscar Wilde".

 Genre: Science-fiction
 Director: Harry Lindley
 Status: Completed

Synopsis: Christian and her boyfriend Dru are heading to the luxurious loft of Lex's brother Leo, a reclusive computer programmer, for his birthday masquerade party. At the party, Leo hands out USB drives labeled "DAISY" as party favors to fellow hackers. In fact, DAISY is an artificial intelligence - originally created by Leo as his opponent of chess games; however it has the ability to evolve and adapt, enhanced with predatory tendency to "sacrifice the weak" to yield efficiency in order to win at all costs. When the computer virus is unleashed, Daisy locks the apartment's security door and cut off all cell receptions. Leo, Lex, and Dru find themselves trapped together in the building while Daisy starts aggressively creating her own imitations of life and even manifesting new creatures for this new Paradise. The virus, evolving rapidly, takes many forms, and gets everywhere - in the air, in the water, and under the skin. Upon a little digital signal, Lex tries to call for help, only to find an apocalyptic outside world because the virus has been released everywhere through the party guests.

Days Of The Bagnold Summer

Cast: Monica Dolan, Earl Cave, Rob Brydon, Alice Lowe, Tamsin Greig
 Genre: Comedy
 Director: Simon Bird
 Status: Post-Production

Synopsis: SUE (52), works in a library. DANIEL (15), eats crisps and listens to Metallica. This was the summer Daniel was due to spend with his father and his father's new wife in Florida. But when they cancel his trip at the last minute, Sue and Daniel suddenly face the prospect of six long weeks together. Over the course of one long summer, an epic war of wills rages in the unassuming battleground of their suburban home as Sue and Daniel reckon with private tragedies - and pursue their personal passions. Based on Joff Winterhart's award-winning graphic novel, this is a beautifully observed, universal coming-of-age story capturing all the tension, pathos and affection of family life.

Denmark

Cast: Rafe Spall, Simone Lykke, Thomas Gabrielsson, Benedikte Hansen, Joel Fry, Steve Speirs
 Genre: Drama
 Director: Adrian Shergold
 Status: Completed

Synopsis: Herb's life is a mess. He's lost his welfare, can't hold a job, can't talk to his son, has a neighbour who won't shut up and a diet that consists mainly of cheap beer and mushy peas. It's no way to live and he knows it. Then he learns from a TV news report that Danish prisoners have it way better than he does: a job, accessible healthcare, the quiet of the countryside, even an HDTV. They're practically living in hotels. He says goodbye (and good riddance) to his dingy flat and smuggles himself to Denmark aboard a cargo ship, landing in a quaint town with everything he needs -- including a bank to rob. But when he meets a friendly local barmaid and a lovable stray dog that won't leave his side, he begins to wonder if prison really is his only chance of a fulfilling life.

Diego Maradona

Genre: Documentary
 Director: Asif Kapadia
 Status: Completed

Synopsis: Having never won a major tournament, ailing football giant SSC Napoli had criminally underachieved. Their fanatical support was unequalled in both passion and size. None was more feared. But how they ached for success... On 5th July 1984, Diego Maradona arrived in Naples for a world-record fee and for seven years all hell broke loose. The world's most celebrated football genius and the most dysfunctional city in Europe were a perfect match for each other. Maradona was blessed on the field but cursed off it; the charismatic Argentine, quickly led Naples to their first-ever title. It was the stuff of dreams. But there was a price... Diego could do as he pleased whilst performing miracles on the pitch, but when the magic faded he became almost a prisoner of the city. In a city where the devil would have needed bodyguards, Maradona became bigger than God himself. This is the wild and unforgettable story of God-given talent, glory, despair and betrayal, of corruption and ultimately redemption.

Synopsis: As imaginative as the creative process it documents, A DOG CALLED MONEY is a uniquely intimate journey through the inspiration, writing and recording of a PJ Harvey record.
 Writer and musician Harvey and award-winning photographer Seamus Murphy, hatched a collaboration. Seeking first-hand experience of the countries she wanted to write about, Harvey accompanied Murphy on some of his worldwide reporting trips, joining him in Afghanistan, Kosovo, and Washington DC. Harvey collected words, Murphy collected images.
 Back home, the words become poems, songs, then an album, which is recorded in an unprecedented art experiment in Somerset House, London. In a specially constructed room behind one-way glass, the public - all cameras surrendered - are invited to watch the 5-week process as a live sound-sculpture. Murphy exclusively documents the experiment with the same forensic vision and private access as their travels.
 By capturing the immediacy of their encounters with the people and places they visited, Murphy shows the humanity at the heart of the work, tracing the sources of the songs, their special metamorphosis into recorded music, and, ultimately, cinema.

The Go-Go's

Genre: Documentary
 Director: Alison Ellwood
 Status: Production

Synopsis: Underpinned by full access to the band members and their candid testimonies, a wealth of personal and public archive, and an evocative soundtrack, this is a film which takes us to the heart of the 80s New Wave music scene and the intriguing world which existed between punk and pop - a blurred line between light and shade which The Go-Go's and its members embodied. This documentary feature unpacks the complexities of a group whose upbeat, kitsch sound belied the dark realities of what was happening off stage.

Synopsis: Atti is a Roman teenager with brains but very little brawn. When one of his clever schemes falls foul of Emperor Nero, Atti is forced to join the army and is sent to miserable, cold, wet Britain where the natives are revolting - quite literally. Things go from bad to worse when Atti is captured by Orla, a feisty teenage Celt desperate to prove herself as a warrior. When Orla's grandmother, Brenda, is then kidnapped by an enemy tribe, Atti seizes on the opportunity to save his own skin by using his Roman know-how to help Orla save her. Meanwhile a furious Nero is determined to crush the rebellion, led by Boudicca, Queen of the Iceni. After narrowly avoiding a very sticky end in a bog, Atti rejoins his Roman troops and discovers they are preparing for an historic showdown with the Celts at the Battle of Watling Street. Atti's brains could save the day but they could also spell disaster for Orla as the two new friends find themselves lined up on opposite sides of the battlefield.

 Genre: Comedy
 Director: Alberto Sciamma
 Status: Completed

Synopsis: Following a car crash Ron and Olga are bizarrely transported from their comfy world into an uncertain one -- from the safety of their living-room in England, into an alien world in North Africa and across Europe. Without money or documents and still in their pyjamas, they will need to put aside their mutual animosity and find a way back. Olga and her son Ron, both living in the portside town of Tilbury, manage to accidentally exile themselves from their own country over an argument about cheese. As if being stranded in Morocco without documents or money wasn't enough, they have to find a way to immigrate back home. With a relationship that is strained at the best of times, mother and son have to survive each other as well as a journey across the Mediterranean and European continent. As their absurd adventure unfolds, the two come face-to-face with their own insecurities. While the manipulative but uninhibited mother hides her vulnerabilities behind her crass and carefree manners, her juvenile son struggles between wanting his own independence and needing his mother's support.

Kate Nash Underestimate The Girl

Cast: Kate Nash, Linda Buratto, Emma Hugues, Alicia Warrington
 Genre: Documentary
 Director: Amy Goldstein
 Status: Completed

Synopsis: At 18, Kate Nash reached the stratosphere of pop music, vaulting from a working class family in North London into worldwide tours, a platinum record. A few years later, Kate is breaking down, defrauded by her manager and dropped by an industry that cannot find a place for her in the girl-pop machine; Kate sets out to build a better world, dedicated to the artist as creator, not commodity, and using, as she always has, the uplifting power of online culture and her own authentic voice. She pursues acting as another form of artistic expression (and way of making a living) and lands a part in the TV series GLOW. Punk renegade, TV wrestling queen, and DIY leader of an all-girl band, Kate's journey is an inspiring call to the creative heart in all of us: be fearless.

 Genre: Comedy
 Director: Aoife Crehan
 Status: Post-Production

Synopsis: New York-based Daniel Murphy wakes on a flight home to Ireland for his Mum's funeral to find elderly passenger Pdraig Murphy has died in the next seat. To his surprise the lonely Pdraig had just listed him as his next-of-kin.

In a bid to persuade his autistic brother Louis to return to New York with him, Daniel agrees to drive Pdraig's remains all across Ireland, from Cork to Rathlin Island, to be buried with his brother. Hitching a ride in the passenger seat is the funeral home temp Mary on a desperate mission to correct a drunken mistake. Meanwhile, the police realise Daniel has no business driving off with Pdraig's body, and Daniel, Mary and Louis find themselves the focus of a nationwide manhunt.

As they cross the country and the border, sparks ignite between Mary and Daniel. But when a long-buried family secret endangers the fragile truce between the brothers, Mary finds herself caught in the crossfire.

With its unique sense of humour, this is a bittersweet comedy that will tug at your heartstrings.

Liam Gallagher: As It Was

Genre: Documentary
 Director: Gavin Fitzgerald
 Status: Completed

Synopsis: Liam Gallagher is not only one of the greatest frontmen of all time, but also one of the most original, controversial and charismatic stars of his generation. With his audacious swagger and electrifying presence, he showed the world what it meant to be a rock star in a band that conquered the world. But in the years that followed, Liam has been stuck in the creative shadow of his brother Noel. He has struggled to define his role as a man and an artist, ricocheting between projects whilst fighting his own personal demons.

LIAM GALLAGHER: AS IT WAS will tell the emotional story of how Liam went from the dizzying heights of his champagne supernova years in Oasis, to living on the edge, ostracised and lost in the musical wilderness of boredom, booze and bitter legal battles.

The film will be an honest and revealing portrait of Liam's musical resurrection, exploring the pressures he was under turning his life around, revealing how he risked everything in launching a solo career and shining a light on the harsh life lessons he learnt over the years.

Liam has provided directors Charlie Lightening and Gavin Fitzgerald unparalleled access to every area of his life and the film offers an intimate insight into the mayhem and mania of his world. Key performances from Reading, One Love Manchester and Glastonbury will be prominently featured as well as interviews with family, colleagues and collaborators. This will be a candid and honest portrait of a rare talent.

 Genre: Family
 Director: Corbin Bernsen
 Status: Completed

Synopsis: "My wife had faith, I had doubt - you'd be surprised how well those two work together!" That's been Joe Bigler's "life operating manual" until his wife died in a mysterious bicycle accident. Now without her faith to help him mourn, and his doubt driving toward a mystery surrounding her death, Joe is left with more questions than he can handle, and quickly finds himself spiraling into a dark abyss - uncertain of all things. His rescue comes in the form of a Dog who wanders into his rose garden and refuses to leave. "Dog," as Joe unaffectionately refers to him, never utters a single bark, but engages Joe in silent conversation, and together they form an unexpected bond. And with that bond comes a new understanding of love, mercy, and compassion along with the beginnings of a personalized faith that helps Joe not only begin to grieve and heal, but also discover the answers to the unsolved mystery surrounding his wife's accident...and ultimately an ability to forgive at the highest level.

Made In Italy

Cast: Liam Neeson, Micheál Richardson
 Genre: Romance
 Director: James D'Arcy
 Status: Pre-Production

Synopsis: Made In Italy is a heart-warming comedy set in glorious Tuscany about bohemian London artist Robert (Neeson), who returns to Italy with his estranged son Jack (Richardson) to make a quick sale of the house they inherited from his late wife. Neither expects to find the once beautiful villa in such a state of disrepair... Renovations go badly, and father and son find themselves at odds - not for the first time. Robert's comical lack of DIY experience leads him to seek help from some colourful locals, but for Jack, the state of the house seems to mirror his search for memories of happier times with his mother. Then Jack falls for Natalia, a vivacious young Italian chef, who restores both body and soul with delights from her local trattoria - until the pair find their developing relationship in jeopardy from Natalia's jealous and threatening ex-husband. As Robert and Jack painstakingly restore the villa to its previous glory, they also start to mend their relationship. The future may now look quite different and surprise them both.

Mrs. Lowry & Son

Cast: Vanessa Redgrave, Timothy Spall
 Genre: Drama
 Director: Adrian Noble
 Status: Completed

Synopsis: An intimate and comical portrayal into one of the greatest artists of the 20th Century, L.S. Lowry, and his unhappy and controlling relationship with his bed-ridden mother, Elizabeth. Elizabeth actively tried to dissuade her bachelor son from pursuing his artistic ambitions, whilst never failing to voice her opinion at what a disappointment he was to her. The film follows Lowry in the beginnings of his career as he yearns to transition into having his work appreciated in London and beyond. We quickly come to learn that it is his disdainful mother, not his want of talent that is the ultimate obstacle to his success. At the same time, the film explores how Elizabeth is the very reason Lowry paints anything at all, as he desperately seeks to create something, anything, which will make her happy, creating a clever layer of tragic irony. This powerful, yet humorous drama imagines the impact this obsessive mother and son relationship had on the great artist.

Synopsis:	The world knows Guy Fawkes as a famous rebel who was going to blow up the King of England and the British Parliament. What the world doesn't know is that Guy Fawkes and his Squad of well-armed companions were also vampire hunters. REMEMBER REMEMBER is a Vampire action/horror feature that takes place in the 1600s as Guy Fawkes, like VAN HELSING, pledges to rid the English countryside of blood-sucking vampires. It is pure swashbuckling action with bloodthirsty vampires all set in the true history of U.K.'s most famous doomed rebel.

Synopsis:	Fresh out of prison, Pat Tate (Craig Fairbrass) steps right back into his Essex nightclub business. But although the money is good, he can't stop brooding about the man who had him put away. It's not long before he's off to Marbella to find Frank Harris and seek his revenge. But Harris is long dead and the middle man Terry Fisher offers Pat the biggest drug deal of his life. All Pat needs is for his pals Tony and Craig to deliver the cash from Essex to close the deal. But Craig being Craig, turns a simple plane trip to a massive road trip with a stolen VW van and its hippie German owner in tow. All Tony wants is to make it back in time to support his best friend Nigel Benn at the boxing match of his life. But when their cash gets stolen and Pat is threatened by a local firm, Pat comes up with an even more audacious plan and to get them back to England in time for Tony to walk Nigel Benn out to one of history's greatest fights.

Synopsis: Acclaimed writer-director Sally Potter provides Academy Award® and Golden Globe-winning actor Javier Bardem with a role that showcases his unique versatility. He is joined by Academy Award® nominee Salma Hayek, three-time Academy Award® nominee Laura Linney and multi Emmy Award-winning comedian Chris Rock, for the film, a masterful and touching chronicle of a day in one man's life, and of the unconditional bond with his daughter, played by Elle Fanning.

The film follows 24 hours in the life of father and daughter Leo (Bardem) and Molly (Fanning) as she grapples with the challenges of dealing with her father's chaotic mental state. But as they weave their way around New York City, their ordinary but stressful day takes on a hallucinatory and epic quality, for Leo is seamlessly flowing in and out of several parallel lives; a passionate marriage with his childhood sweetheart Dolores (Hayek) in Mexico; a struggling career as a drummer in Manhattan with his more successful lover, Adam (Rock); and a life of solitude on a remote Greek island, where a chance encounter with two young tourists unmasks the uncomfortable truths of a family life left behind...

The film weaves a rich, cinematic tapestry as Leo's parallel lives - visible only to him - gradually unravel in moments of tragedy, happiness, regret and humour. It is only his daughter who gradually begins to understand his extraordinary secret.

 Market Office: Riviera L7
 Home Office tel: +49 89 24 41 29 55 00

Synopsis: Part love story and probing social commentary, Scarborough explores the impulsive nature of forbidden love and its unpredictable consequences. The dilapidated charm of the Victorian hotel makes for an interesting counterpoint with the teenage lovers' youthful optimism and careless passion. Directed by Barnaby Southcombe ("I, Anna"), the film stars Jodhi May ("Ginger & Rosa"), Jordan Bolger ("iBoy", "Peaky Blinders"), Edward Hogg ("Imagine", "Anonymous") and Jessica Barden ("The Lobster", "Far From the Madding Crowd") in the lead roles, and is produced by Christopher Granier-Deferre ("Lady Macbeth", "The Levelling", "Apostasy").
 Two mismatched lovers arrive at the British seaside town of Scarborough, seeking an escape from the constraints of real life. Liz, desperately shy and beautiful, seems older than her companion, the happy-go-lucky and impulsive Daz. In their faded hotel room, amongst the peeling wallpaper and away from the prying eyes of their hometown, they laugh, quarrel, make love and enjoy their anonymity. In an identical room in the same hotel, the sensitive artist Aiden and Beth, a fiery and impulsive young woman, tell the same story. As both couples are forced to come to terms with the illicit nature of their love, power shifts from one lover to the other, and joy turns to suffering as they reel from the destructive force of unbridled love.
 The hotel rooms are the couples' safe haven, but also a self-imposed prison, avoiding as they must the outside world. After all, at barely 16 years old, two of them are still at school.... and the other two, their own teachers.

Synopsis: An outsider with attitude, Show Me The Picture: The Story of Jim Marshall chronicles the infamous photographer's life behind and outside the camera. A child of immigrants and a life battling inner demons, Jim fought his way to become one of the most trusted mavericks behind a lens throughout 60's history.
 A passion for music led him to capture some of the most iconic figures in music history from Bob Dylan, The Rolling Stones, to the infamous image of Jimi Hendrix burning his guitar. It was his abrasive but honest approach to his subjects combined with incredible skill to build trust that expanded his portfolio beyond celebrities, documenting history across the ages.

Synopsis: Lovable characters Sooty, Sweep and Soo, set out on a hilariously doomed road trip, in this exciting new family adventure from the creators of Gnomeo and Juliet.
 Having promised to find missing royalty, the King and Queen Teddies, and return them home to Blackpool in time for a very special Teddy Bear's picnic, Sooty and the gang embark on a madcap journey across the country, coming face-to-face with none other than Sooty's arch enemy, the Colossus of Crime along the way. Up to his usual tricks, Colossus has stolen a priceless diamond from a local museum... a diamond that inadvertently ends up in a tray of trifles that Sooty has collected for the famous picnic!
 Incorporating film parodies of everything from Night of the Living Dead, to Top Gun and The Greatest Showman, Sooty and the Trifle of Doom is a spectacular treat, full of fun and laughter for all the family, packed with slap-stick humour, cream-pies, gallons of trifle, and a whole heap of Sooty's unique magic.

Synopsis: What are wonders and what does it mean to collect them? The wunderkammer - also known as cabinets of wonder in English or cabinet de curiosités in French - emerged among sovereigns and elite collectors in the 16th century. There are extraordinary rooms all over the world: those of the past, the Renaissance cabinets that became, during the course of the 18th century, some of today's major museums, and those of the present, whose contents come from the most prestigious galleries to be displayed in amazing villas and castles. Eccentric and priceless oddities and private collections still exist. The film enters these secret places to reveal the wonder that lies inside them, as never seen before.

Synopsis: After instigating the largest of leak of secrets in US history - when she disclosed 750,000 documents to Wikileaks - ex-soldier and trans woman Chelsea Manning was supposed to spend most of the rest of her life behind bars in an all-male military prison. But on January 17 2017, President Barack Obama commuted her sentence, in an unprecedented and controversial move that divided the United States and the world. XY Chelsea follows Chelsea Manning as she leaves prison after seven years inside, and begins a new life, whilst at the same time having to deal with the far-reaching consequences of her past - the historic leaks that lead to her prison sentences, the unintended celebrity status that is thrust on her as one of the world's most notorious whistleblowers, and transitioning to become the woman she has always known herself to be. XY Chelsea is an intimate character portrait of a fascinating, unique and complex woman, a true rebel and outsider, who after making history must now start a new life, in a world which is far from welcoming, and in the shadow of rising Nationalism and intolerance, which has fomented hate and division throughout America.
