THE UK GLOBAL SCREEN FUND

The UK Global Screen Fund (UKGSF) is a £7m per annum fund designed to boost international development, production, distribution and promotional opportunities for the UK's independent screen sector.

The UKGSF targets support across the screen sector, including film, TV, documentary, animation and interactive narrative games content.

Financed by the UK government's Department for Digital, Culture, Media and Sport, and administered by the BFI, the UKGSF is focused on supporting:

| International Co-production

| International Business Development

| International Distribution

KEY AIMS:

- growing the revenue and sustainability of UK independent screen businesses by supporting their international activity
- enabling industry to grow international partnerships and to develop projects with international appeal for mutual benefit
- increasing the reach of UK screen content to international audiences.

INTERNATIONAL CO-PRODUCTION

Supporting UK producers to work as partners on international co-productions and help create new global projects.

Objective: to support international co-production projects with strong export, international and audience reach potential, which can also show the potential to generate revenues for the UK producer.

Funding in the form of non-recoupable grants of up to £300,000 towards:

- 'minority' feature film co-productions (co-productions where the contribution of at least one of the other co-producing partners is greater than the overall contribution of the UK producer) in any language and any genre, including fiction, animation and documentary, which are co-produced with international partners
- television co-productions (whether 'minority' or 'majority' in nature) in the animation and documentary genres only, in any language, which are co-produced with international partners

We are looking for projects that:

- make persuasive cases for their international audience and market appeal
- are able to show international distribution and revenue potential
- access new markets that the UK production company has not previously engaged with, or strengthen ties with existing markets
- improve reciprocity between the UK and other nations in co-production
- come from teams that can demonstrate a previous successful track record, either at festivals, with awards, viewing figures or box office
- have secured third party financing towards the proposed UK financial contribution to the relevant co-production
- show innovation

ELIGIBILITY:

ALL PRODUCTIONS

- The applicant is a limited Company registered and centrally managed in the UK and in good standing, whose core business is producing independent narrative content for cinema/commercial online release or television broadcast
- The lead UK applicant's company is not a company in which more than 25% of its shares are held directly or indirectly by one or more of the following third parties: a non-UK corporate entity; a television broadcaster/SVOD platform or operator; a company defined as a large company under the Companies Act 2006
- The lead individual UK producer connected to the applicant company can give evidence of demonstrable production experience. This is defined as having a personal on-screen Producer credit on at least one feature project that has had commercial distribution, or broadcast in the UK or internationally*
- The project has secured at least 60% of the overall finance, in addition to any prospective contribution from the UKGSF International Co-Production strand or the UK Tax Relief
- The project has secured or will secure at least one other source of funding on the UK financial share, in addition to any prospective contribution from the UKGSF International Co-production strand and/or the UK Tax Relief
- The project is British qualifying either under the Cultural Test; or one of the UK's official bilateral co-production treaties; or The European Convention on Cinematographic Co-Production
- Principal photography/animation start requirement within 8 months of the closing of the strand's deadline. For documentaries the project has a completion date within 18 months of the closing of the strand's deadline
- The project cannot have started production (excl. docs and animation)
- 10-20% minimum financial and creative contribution
- UKGSF funding cannot represent more than 50% of total UK spend

TV

- For "majority" co-productions, there are at least three broadcasters from three different countries contributing to the finance plan (this can include a broadcaster from the UK)
- For "minority" co-productions, there are at least two broadcasters from two different countries contributing to the finance plan (this can include a broadcaster from the UK)
- VOD platforms can also be included in this total, provided that the VOD platform is not acquiring worldwide rights on a buyout basis
- Animation and Documentary only
- a 'single project' or episodic animation or documentary project, with a minimum aggregate duration of 24 minutes, and is intended for TV/online broadcast
- Theatrical release is allowed subject to the condition that the production must have been intended primarily for the television market and respects the above points

FILM

- Minority Co-productions of all genres

Applications for this strand are now open until 4 April 2023, with a further round set to open in August 2023.
